FREE COMMUNITY CONCERTS

Highland Park's Got Talent

Our 40th Anniversary Season Four Community Concerts Sundays at 3pm

As we set to begin our 40th Anniversary Season, the mission of the Strings remains the same: to provide community concerts free of charge where families, friends and North Shore neighbors can gather for an afternoon of musical enjoyment at the highest level. This unique policy of free admission is made possible by the Park District of Highland Park, YEA! Highland Park, the Negaunee Foundation and the generosity of other supportive foundations and individual donors.

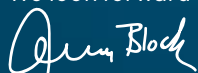

We are also pleased this season to join in the celebration of the sesquicentennial of the City of Highland Park which was organized in 1869. To help observe this special year-long event—titled “HP150”, ALL of the soloists at our concerts will be residents of Highland Park. It is not an overstatement to say: “Highland Park’s Got Talent”.

Our opening concert in October will present the acclaimed pianist SUSAN MERDINGER. Making her second appearance with the Strings, Merdinger will perform the great Piano Concerto No. 1 by Tchaikovsky—a first for the Strings in celebration of our 40th Anniversary. The holiday concert in December will feature husband and wife, DAVID CUNLIFFE AND DESIREE RUHSTRAT. Comprising two-thirds of the Grammy nominated Lincoln Trio (which this summer made it’s 11th appearance at Ravinia), David and Desiree will perform The Muse and the Poet by Saint-Saens. I will also be joined by LUCY COLMAN (my stand partner for 40 years) in the Concerto for Two Cellos by Vivaldi—a reprise of our first performance 28 years ago.

For our Gala Benefit Concert in the intimate and acoustically perfect Bennett-Gordon Hall at Ravinia on February 10, we are fortunate to have back for his second appearance with the Strings, world-class pianist JORGE FEDERICO OSORIO. In this celebratory all Beethoven concert, Osorio will perform the Piano Concerto No. 4 and the Strings will add the Coriolanus Overture and the famed Fifth Symphony.

The final concert in May features Highland Park High School graduate, cellist BEN FRIED, who will perform the extraordinarily difficult Concerto No. 1 by Shostakovich. The Strings will close the season with the New World Symphony by Dvorak.

We look forward to your continued support. On behalf of the Strings, I am deeply grateful.

Lawrence Block
Founder and General Manager

“Congratulations and thank you to Larry Block and the incredibly talented members of the Highland Park Strings! May they continue to provide a cultural focal point for our city and beyond.”

Dr. Robert G. Hasty, Principal Conductor

Dr. Hasty begins his second full year as Principal Conductor of the Strings, having quickly become beloved by the orchestra and the audience. Dr. Hasty is the conductor of the Chamber Orchestra and the Philharmonia of the Henry and Leigh Bienen School of Music at Northwestern University where he also serves as the Associate Director of Orchestras. He is also the Music Director of the Kenosha and the Skokie Valley Symphony Orchestras and Artistic Director of the International Schools Choral Music Society. Dr. Hasty began his career teaching music in the public schools in Southern California. A noted researcher in music cognition, Dr. Hasty is the author of two publications delivered at the 7th International Conference on Music Perception and Cognition in Sydney, Australia. As a conductor, Dr. Hasty has appeared with the All-American College Orchestra at Walt Disney World, Beijing Youth Orchestra, and the Elmhurst and Grant Park Symphonies, among many others. He also continues to perform as a freelance violinist and violist. These days, you will find him fiddling in several Chicagoland clubs and venues with various local bands, most notably performing and recording with his wife, singer-songwriter Christina Trullio.

SCHUBERT

Symphony No. 3 in D Major, D. 200

DESIREE RUHSTRAT made her professional debut at age 12 with Lukas Foss and the Milwaukee Symphony and at age 16, she was invited by Sir Georg Solti to perform Tchaikovsky's Violin Concerto in Chicago's Orchestra Hall. Ruhstrat has appeared as soloist with orchestras throughout the world, including the Berlin Radio Symphony, Radio Suisse Romande, Gottingen Symphony, and the Colorado, Oregon and Utah Symphonies, among many others. A highly regarded teacher, Ruhstrat is currently on the faculty at Northwestern University. Her husband, DAVID CUNLIFFE, has performed with the BBC Philharmonic, BBC Scottish and Royal Scottish Symphony Orchestras and the Balancscu Quartet with whom he toured extensively in Australia, Europe and the United States. Cunliffe is currently on the faculty of the Music Institute of Chicago. As founding members of the Grammy nominated Lincoln Trio (which this past summer performed for the 11th time at Ravinia), Ruhstrat and Cunliffe have performed throughout the United States including appearances at Carnegie's Weill Hall, Alice Tully Hall, Bryant Park Festival , Barge Music, Poisson Rouge, and in Springfield, Illinois, where the Trio was chosen to celebrate the Abraham Lincoln Bicentennial with President Barack Obama. They will perform La Muse et le Poete by Saint-Saens. To add to the festive nature of the Holiday Concert, LARRY BLOCK AND LUCY COLMAN, stand partners in the Strings for 40 years, will reprise the Concerto for Two Cellos by Vivaldi, first performed by them in December, 1990. The Strings will add the Brandenburg Concerto No. 3 of Bach and the Symphony No. 3 of Schubert.

"Many many thanks to you and the Strings for all the years of truly wonderful concerts. The Strings are a real gem and true asset to the area. Every single concert has always been...of downtown caliber."

SHOSTAKOVICH

Concerto for Cello No. 1 in E-flat Major, Op.107

DVORAK

Symphony No. 9 in E Minor, Op. 95 ("From the New World")

Born in Highland Park, cellist BEN FRIED, is carving out a versatile career as a soloist, chamber musician, and composer. He has performed several times on WFMT, and twice on National Public Radio. While a student at Eastman School of Music, he was chosen to receive the prestigious Performer's Certificate, and went on to win the school's concerto competition. He is a prize winner of the Grand Prize Virtuoso Competition, the Eastman Honor's Music Competition, and the St. Paul String Quartet Competition. He performs regularly on tour for the Heifetz International Music Institute, and is a 2018 "artist in residence" at the Festival. He is currently pursuing a doctorate in cello performance at the University of Southern California under the tutelage of Andrew Shulman. Previous cello teachers include Timothy Eddy, Steven Doane and Hans Jensen. Also a dedicated composer, he studies composition under Morten Lauridsen at USC and frequently performs his own works internationally.

Ben will perform the First Concerto of Shostakovich, widely considered to be one of the most difficult concerted works for cello. The Strings will conclude the season with Dvorak's New World Symphony, one of the most popular of all symphonies.

The recent concert with the young violinist, Joshua Brown, was marvelous. We took my 8 year old grandson...and he loved it. Just had to tell you how wonderful it is to have HP Strings. Thank you for starting such an important resource."

– Judith Levy

"The audience gave the ...orchestra standing ovations throughout the performance, but once the concert ended, they wanted more."

– Gail Tzipporah Saunders, Highland Park Landmark

"The seeds you planted all those years ago continue to blossom and flourish"

– Barbara Render

"To have this group playing classical music with such seriousness and offering free concerts to the community becomes more and more amazing every year. It is a tribute to the sponsorship of the... donors who turn out for the annual benefit concert. To say nothing of the determination of Larry Block, founder and co-principal cello"
